Bill Reading & Geo-fenced Audit

A reimbursement audit desk now reads every bill, from thermal slips to handwritten Hindi cash memos, checks it against the salesperson's entitlement and approved tour plan, and confirms it was issued inside the geo-fenced beat.

~~18~~ → 3 days from submission to settlement

100% Bills checked against policy
▲ from about 1 in 10 sampled

6.8% Claim value held back as out of policy
▲ caught before payment

3 days Submission to settlement
▼ from about 18 days

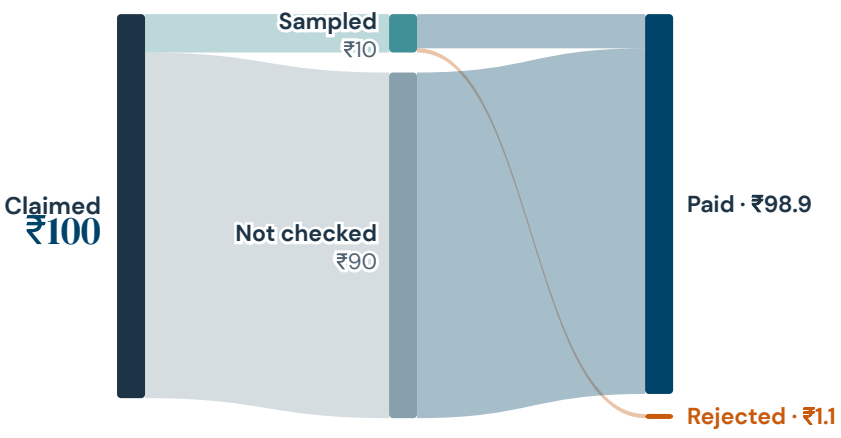

94% Bills read without manual typing
▲ incl. handwritten Hindi memos

Rings: share of bills checked, with the earlier 1-in-10 sample inside; share of claim value held back; 3 settlement days against the earlier 18 (inner ring); share of bills read from the photo. Figures indicative; validated metrics available on request.

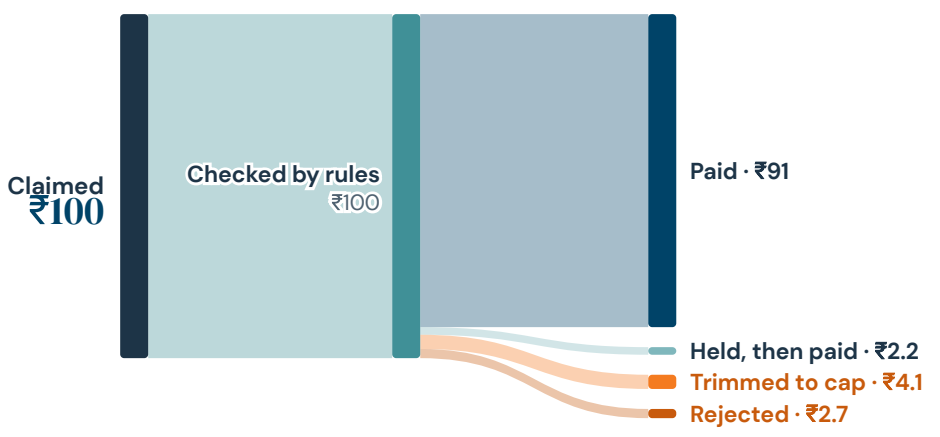

01 Where ₹100 of claims goes

Claim value through checking to outcome · indicative

BEFORE · SAMPLING ONE CLAIM IN TEN

AFTER · EVERY BILL CHECKED BY RULES

Before, 90 of every ₹100 was paid without anyone looking. After, every rupee passes the rules and ₹6.8 is held back: ₹4.1 trimmed to the entitlement cap and ₹2.7 rejected, each with a written reason.

02 One week, 17 bills, nine checks each

GEO-FENCE
Two meals far off the beat
Bills 165 km and 117 km from the day's approved town: held until the salesperson gives the reason for the visit.

DUPLICATE
Room-service bill uploaded twice
Same vendor, bill number and amount as a bill already claimed. Rejected.

WINDOW AND TOUR PLAN
A bill 40 days old
Submitted beyond the 30-day window, on a date with no approved tour plan. Rejected.

GSTIN
Invalid GSTIN on a hotel invoice
Check digit fails; held for a corrected invoice.

STRAIGHT THROUGH
11 of 17 approved
Seven in full and four trimmed to the cap for grade and city tier, with the rule shown for every rupee. Two handwritten Hindi memos approved as read.

03 Four pain points, four fixes

Before → after

BEFORE
Bills in every format
Faded thermal slips, handwritten Hindi cash memos and blurry phone photos, all typed in by hand.

GENAI VISION

AFTER
Read from the photo
Printed and handwritten bills read with a confidence score, Hindi included.

Entitlements in a PDF
Caps differ by grade and city tier, so most bills were never checked against the right one.

POLICY AS RULES

AFTER
Caps applied automatically
Cap by grade (M1 to M3) and city tier (A, B, C) on every bill.

No way to check where
A dinner bill 200 km from the approved beat looked the same as one next door.

GEO-FENCE + GPS

AFTER
Location verified
Vendor address geocoded and matched to the beat fence and GPS check-ins.

BEFORE
Slow, uneven settlement
Claims waited weeks; deductions arrived without reasons and salespeople pushed back.

REASONED NOTES

AFTER
Settled in about 3 days
Itemised note with the rule behind each deduction; Finance approves every claim.

04 Inside the beat?

Sample week: distance of each bill from the day's approved town

2 meal bills held, not rejected
salesperson asked for the reason for the visit

05 Settle the week

Claim register for the same 17 sample bills

Claimed this week ₹26,185

Payable now	₹19,760 · 75%
Held for an answer	₹2,988 · 11%
Disallowed, with a reason	₹3,437 · 13%

DECISIONS · 17 BILLS

06 How HMC ran it

2 weeks	Discover Three months of claims reviewed; leakage map and bill format library.
2 weeks	Design Every line of the travel policy written as a check; rulebook signed off by Finance and Sales.
5 weeks	Build Reader, GSTIN and arithmetic checks, geocoding; audit desk and claim register.
2 zones	Adopt Pilot with weekly settlement; the desk recommends, Finance decides.
All zones	Scale Field app sends bills and GPS together; approved claims post to the ERP.

What any finance team can borrow

01
Write the policy as rules first
Once caps, tiers and windows are rules, checking every bill costs the same as checking one.

02
Location is a cheap, strong check
A vendor address plus the day's tour plan answers "was this on the beat?" without accusing anyone.

03
Give a reason with every deduction
Disputes drop when the salesperson sees the rule, the cap and the amount, line by line.
